Dear Parent

Workshop for young players. Tuesday 13th February 2018

We are delighted to be able to offer a workshop for young players as part of our annual winter course. The workshop will cover practice methods, manual technique and articulation, pedal technique, four-part playing and transposition and is aimed at students up to the age of eighteen. Students are welcome to bring with them ABRSM grade repertoire on which they may be working, for advice and help. Younger students who may be working towards the early ABRSM grades are just as welcome as more senior students. There is no lower age limit.

The day will run between 1100 and 1700, with a break for lunch, concluding with a short concert at 1615 which students will perform items on which they have been working during the day. The cost of the day is £25 per participant and lunch will be provided as part of this. Parents are welcome to stay for the day as observers.

We are fortunate to have the services of three of the UKs most experienced organ teachers Philip Scriven, Andrew Millington and Ian Curror.

Numbers are limited to fourteen in order that the workshop can be as 'hands on' as possible. We expect the day to be popular, so please don't delay your booking!
