

South Wessex Organ Society

Winter course: The influence of plainsong in the organ repertoire

Monday 18th to Wednesday 20th February 2019

Application form

Please note that access to some of the instruments used on the course is via steep staircases, and there will be a fair amount of walking between venues, so the course may not be suitable for people with reduced mobility.

Name .....

Address .....

Postcode ..... Tel .....

Email.....

Special dietary requirements.....

Accommodation

Would you like us to help you find accommodation? YES / NO (please circle)

If yes, please circle your preferred price range (per person per night) and give the number in your party:

Under £40    £40–60    £60–80    £80–120                      Number in party .....

We will put you in touch with a provider – please make bookings and financial arrangements directly with them. If you are booking accommodation, we advise you to take out appropriate travel insurance.

Prices for the course are £230 for adults, £120 for students in full-time education and £25 for a young person to attend the junior day only. Please return your completed form to Jane Godfrey at the address below and pay online into our Lloyds account: 32566560, sort code: 30 92 40. Alternatively, you can pay by enclosing a cheque (payable to South Wessex Organ Society) with your application form. Please tick one of the options below.

I have paid online

I have enclosed a cheque

Winter course administrator: Jane Godfrey, Dashwood, Lyme Road, Uplyme DT7 3UY

01297 445709 | wintercourse@sworgansociety.org

South Wessex Organ Society | Registered charity no. 1173820 | www.sworgansociety.org