About the society

The South Wessex Organ Society is a registered charity and the successor to the Lyme Regis Organ School. The Society has access to the beautiful Škrabl organ in St Michael's Church, Lyme Regis, with its 50-rank three-manual mechanical action, as well as to many other fine organs in Devon and Dorset.

Our three main objectives are:

- To encourage musicians to take up organ playing and to nurture and encourage them in all aspects of their organ training
- To promote the appreciation of the organ and its part in the musical repertoire
- To assist those who use the organ liturgically or for secular entertainment

You do not need to be an organist to be a member, but if you like organ music and support the society's aims, we are keen to enrol you.

We need your support to ensure our success. Join us: we guarantee a warm and appreciative welcome.

- Attend special members' events, including an annual president's reception
- Receive a regular members' newsletter
- And, most of all, share in the excitement of making a significant contribution to the artistic life of South Wessex

	Two people at the same address	£25
